

Join us on a unique tour that showcases the harmonious coexistence of different religious communities in Thonburi Capital, This enriching experience will take you to some of the city's most significant religious sites, offering insights into the diverse spiritual landscape of Thailand.

Chance to visit three different religions and different architecture
Buddhist, Chinese, and The Church

-Buddhist Temples: Visit magnificent temples and witness the serene practices of Buddhism at Wat Kanlayanamit, Luang Pho To, or Phra Buddha Tri Rattananayok. It is a stucco Buddha image in the posture of Maravichai, lacquered and gilded, with a lap width of 11.75 meters and a height of 15.44 meters

-The Kuan Yin Shrine in Bangkok is in an old Chinese building within a community on the Chao Phraya River where time seems to have stood still for the last 200 years.

Today, the Kuan Yin Shrine is in the care of a local Chinese family living in the area. In Thai, the goddess of mercy is known as Jao Mae Kuan Im.

-The Santa Cruz Churches one of the many old Catholic churches in Bangkok, was built in 1770 during the reign of King Taksin (1867 – 1782). This Church of the Holy Cross is a legacy of Portuguese-Siamese relations that date back to the 16th century.

-Lunch will be A Portuguese restaurant that has been passed down for five generations.

This tour not only highlights the architectural beauty and spiritual significance of these sites but also celebrates the peaceful coexistence and mutual respect among different religious communities in Bangkok. Embrace the harmony and diversity that make this city truly special.
